No Effort At Secrecy

"Anyone could see the games, they have been wide open, no guard or lookout, no warning bells, no protection against raids by the police; they must have felt very sure—sure you can draw your own conclusions."

"What information I have will be placed before the Citizens' League as soon as it is assembled. I have already placed a long list in the hands of one of the league's officers. I might recall that one place on Texas street has had its tables going and looks like the Casino in Juarez. Recently when the window shades in another building blew down, the tenants in a bank building, even by hand a splendid view of the seven games in full operation, but the police and city detectives with their poor eyesight couldn't have seen that."

"Too safe to know I secure my information. It comes from all directions, on the phone, from the man who has been skinned from the clerk since last week's salary went on."

"Nor is it difficult to determine the ownership of the games. These things seem to be matters of common knowledge in Juarez, but not to the police and detectives."

A Business Proposition.

"Do you regard the situation as likely to improve?" asked The Herald man.

"It is very much improved already," replied Mr. Stevens.

"How?"

"Why, gambling has been closed in order to help sheriff Orndorff and others perpetrate themselves in office. Dorbandt with his law enforcement declarations has scared them up. Why doesn't The Herald print the actual cash as taken by the sheriff and chief? Maybe they have forgotten just how it reads."

"Business men will see that gambling is closed, as a business measure," continued Mr. Stevens. "Ninety-five percent of the supporters of the if you have a back ache."

"If you are subject to dull pains in the head, dizziness, nervousness are languid and feel tired all over, a package of the old reliable remedy Mather Gray's AROMATIC-LEAF, the pleasant medicinal tea, will make a real tonic. As a gentle laxative it has no equal. Ask for Mather Gray's Aromatic-Leaf at drugstore or sent by mail for 50 cts. Sample FREE. Address, Mather Gray Co., Le Roy, N. Y.—Adv.

Dorbandt To Give Information On Sheriff's Office

Robert L. Dorbandt, Democratic candidate for sheriff to succeed Seth Orndorff, has collected some interesting information bearing on the conduct of the sheriff's office. Some facts that ought to be known to the Democratic voters before they vote in the primaries July 21 have been put in the form of affidavits, and some of these will be read Saturday night at the public meeting advertised to take place at Cleveland square at 8:30 p. m.

Mr. Orndorff is aware that his opponent has these affidavits; when they are made public it will be interesting to see whether he will ignore them or answer them. The public is entitled to information on which to base its selective judgment in the primaries. And Mr. Dorbandt purposes to state his case so long before the primaries that every opportunity will be given for discussion.

The Saturday night meeting, at which several speeches will appear, is public, but it is intended especially for the benefit of that large body of independent voters, men and women, who have not definitely made up their minds and who are still just studying it. It is expected that several things of striking interest will be developed.

Chamber of commerce are against gambling; it is a business proposition with the business community, aside from very other considerations. Savings accounts have dropped off at some of the banks for no other reason than that gambling has been going on here and in Juarez. The Real Estate board is taking a keen interest as a business proposition. Persons whose money has been going over the tables might buy homes if gambling were done away with, and those who have already bought would be able to keep up payments.

Citizens' League to Act.

"The Herald once published a statement of an El Paso chief of police, in which he said that he was permitted to operate as it left money in El Paso that would otherwise not stay here. There is a little bit of this same old feeling here right now, but it is not widespread. Juarez and El Paso can well cooperate in cleaning up both border cities and keeping them clean. It will pay them to do so."

"Do you think gambling will be resumed after the primaries are over?" Mr. Stevens was asked.

"That depends; it won't last long after the Citizens' League takes a hand."

Then Mr. Stevens, as he turned to the papers awaiting attention on his desk, quoted the Rev. Sam P. Jones as follows:

"I would as soon wax my pointer dog's nose and expect him to find birds as I would expect the police to find gambling."

REAL BEDS AT CHICAGO MEET

By DAVID LAWRENCE.

he a different story, but the writer was assured by members of the committee of 48 that this convention was indeed a revelation to them and that many of the leaders of the labor groups here were merely playing a game of labor politics intended to help them get in the big offices in organized labor for themselves—a merely a case of personal ambition which is as much derided when individuals are sent to similar human aspirations in the Republican and Democratic parties. It was a good thing that the extremists in America were gathered together in a single room, or at least representatives of every extremity of the nation for the whole thing was like a safety valve.

It was well to allow the steam to blow off. The extremists radicals revealed their own hypocrisy.

They even refused a courteous hearing to the progressives and liberals who tried to furnish a sane basis to the third party program and guide it along lines in a way that it was contended by George L. Record of New Jersey, for instance, would convert millions of citizens who otherwise might close their minds and refuse even to listen to third party arguments.

The progressives like Amos Pinchot and Al Record argued that as a matter of political expediency, it was not wise to go too far in the first announcement of the third party program.

But the word "expediency" was like waving a red flag in front of a bull. Speaker after speaker from the ranks of labor rose and shouted that as between expediency and principle they preferred principle no matter where it led them—a splendid manifestation of fighting spirit, but as valuable in a political meeting as it would be at the battle line if troops refused to retreat when a commander advised it for strategic reasons or as a maneuver toward ultimate victory.

The labor group said plainly it did not even care whether La Follette accepted the nomination, though most of them must have realized he was their best champion on the stump and in the legislature.

They would insist, they said, on making a platform first and then naming a candidate who would run on it. They were ready to denounce La Follette as out of sympathy with the aspirations of subject peoples and they did indeed shout down several speakers, although one of the planks of the platform referred in emphatic terms to free speech.

Faction of Robt Let Loose.

Time and again the chairman of the convention had to intercede with the audience to permit an individual to speak who had been given the floor in accordance with the rules of procedure. Cries of "sit down" and "let him go" were heard.

It was an hour of distillation for patriotic order and a repetition of what always has happened when liberals try to accomplish reforms through extremists and noise-making agitators. The extremists killed what might have been a moderate program of liberalism in a campaign containing no small burden of sound conservation and avowed reaction. Copyright, 1920, by David Lawrence.

Roosevelt Will Start Speaking Tour Immediately; Country May Be Divided By Democratic Pair

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 16.—

Franklin D. Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the navy and Democratic vice-presidential nominee, arrived in Washington today from his home in New York. He went direct to his office at the navy department and began clearing his desk of the mass of letters and details that had accumulated during his absence at the San Francisco convention.

Navy department employees planned an impromptu celebration this afternoon at which they hoped Mr. Roosevelt would make a speech.

Mr. Roosevelt will attend the conference Sunday between President Wilson and Governor Cox at the White House and will return to Dayton with the governor Sunday night for the meeting of the Democratic national committee Monday and Tuesday. The vice-presidential candidate said plans would be made at this meeting for the speaking tour of the Democratic candidates.

"Will governor Cox and yourself divide the country between yourselves, one going east and the other going west?" Mr. Roosevelt was asked.

"That has not been decided, but I think it might be a good guess" he replied.

"Throw him out" which one would have suspected took place only in the capitalistic gatherings when a liberal thought is uttered, were the committee members of the third party meeting. All the passion of the mob, all the misguided energy of the extremists, all the menacing theories of economic revolution, were let loose here without hindrance by the police or state police and as a consequence the extremists have shot their bolt and no one need fear that they will attempt to overthrow the government.

They have been getting at the hands of the Intellectual Socialists. Mr. Roosevelt, Charles D. Hilles and George B. Cortelyou, of New York, and senator Harry S. New of Indiana are on the reception committee.

COMMITTEE TO FILL ARIZONA
C. O. P. TICKET DEFERS REPORT

Prescott, Ariz., July 16.—Postponement of the report of a committee to fill the Arizona vacancies in the Republican state ticket was announced at last night's meeting of the statewide council of the Republican party in Arizona.

Chief developments of the day were Governor Campbell's announcement that he had decided to be a candidate for reelection, adoption of resolutions denouncing the nomination of Senator Harding and Governor Coolidge and approving the party platform, and delivery of addresses by E. K. Clark, candidate for United States senator, and Governor Campbell, C. H. Lane, from the national committee, and Robert S. Morrison of Prescott.

A resolution, unanimously adopted by central committee members and about 250 other Republicans from virtually all counties of the state, devoted its major portion to a commendation of the administration of Governor Campbell. ## Rheumatism Comes From Tiny Pain Demons Disease Caused by Germs in the Blood.

First of all, get it firmly fixed in your mind that all the liniments in the world have no effect whatever on Rheumatism. You may use them by the gallon, and rub the painful parts by the hour, getting possibly some temporary relief from the torturing pains, but you are making no headway whatever toward reaching the cause of the disease.

Medical scientists differ as to the cause of every form of rheumatism, but agree that when caused by a tiny disease germ, the only effective method of treatment is to attack the disease at its source, and cleanse the blood of its cause.

This is why S. S. S., the greatest known blood purifier, is so successful in the treatment of Rheumatism. It is a powerful cleanser of the blood, and will remove the disease germs that cause your Rheumatism, affording relief that is genuine.

The most common form of Rheumatism is caused by millions of tiny disease germs which infect the blood. The one and only sensible treatment therefore, is one which cleanses the blood of these germs, and roots them entirely out of the circulation.
